Subject : Mass pledge against Drug Abuse under Nasha Mukti Bharat Abhiyaan

Department of Social Justice and Empowerment, Govt. of India is implementing Nasha Mukti Bharat Abhiyaan (NMBA) in all districts across the country with an aim to create mass awareness about the ill effects of substance abuse. This abhiyaan was launched five years ago to successfully engaged youth, civil society, and stakeholders across the country, generating awareness and promoting positive behavioural change.

To commemorate the 5th anniversary of this Campaign, the Department of Social Justice & Empowerment is organizing an event in collaboration with the Government of NCT of Delhi on 13th August 2025, with orientation to reach out to 3 crore individuals through both physical and online mode starting from 1st August to 31st August 2025 with special focus on 13th August 2025.

The Competent Authority has desired that all the employees (Teaching & Non-Teaching) of the University are mandatorily required to take online pledge against Drug abuse and download pledge certificate from the portal given below, as a part of National campaign starting from 1st August to 31st August, 2025 with special emphasis on 13th August 2025:-

"Website: nmba.dosje.gov.in"

All the Deans/Directors/HODs are hereby requested to sensitize and encourage all the staff both Teaching and Non-Teaching working under them to actively take part in large number in the awareness campaign by taking pledge on the collaboration event day scheduled for 13th August 2025. An action Taken Report may also be furnished to the Establishment (Non-Teaching) branch for kind perusal of the Competent Authority.

This issues with the prior approval of Competent Authority.
